

For the past five years, Joset Wright-Lacy has served as the President of the National Minority Supplier Development Council (NMSDC), the largest corporate membership organization in the world dedicated to the development of minority businesses. The NMSDC has 1,700 corporate members and over 12,000 certified minority business enterprises (MBEs).

Prior to NMSDC, Wright-Lacy was the Vice President of Business Development for The Hollins Group, a minority-owned executive search firm. Before The Hollins Group, she worked in several positions in Ameritech such as General Counsel, Business Unit General Counsel, Vice President for Procurement and Property Services, and finally as President of Ameritech/SBC Illinois.

Joset Wright-Lacy earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from Dennison University and a juris doctorate degree from Georgetown University Law Center.