

Abe Carrillo (Chairman)

Director, Inclusiveness & Diversity

Herman Miller, Inc.

Abe Carrillo collaborates with the organization's leaders and many functional areas across the company to champion the corporate inclusiveness strategy. His responsibilities include leading the company's award winning supplier diversity program, overseeing eleven global ERG's, implementing inclusive workplace strategies, and connecting these efforts with brand outreach to diverse markets. He also launched and directs the Herman Miller Academy, a career exploration and talent retention program designed to prepare local high school students for the workforce.

He is active in the community as chair of the Herman Miller Foundation's Education Giving Board and serves on the boards of NHHC (National Hispanic Corporate Council), MMSDC (Michigan Minority Supplier Development Council) and GAAH (Grandville Avenue Arts & Humanities).
